

Disability Community Seminar

Accessing the World through International Exchange

Join us to discuss the “Who, What, Where and Why” of study, volunteer, internship and other opportunities for Americans to travel to other countries. Exchange alumni with disabilities will share their stories and accommodation strategies for navigation abroad.

This half-day seminar and luncheon is intended for:

- Youth and adults from the disability or Deaf/Hard of Hearing communities living in the United States
- Representatives of U.S. disability organizations or agencies
- Higher education disability service providers
- Transition specialists, parents and school educators

Registration Deadline: June 21, 2010 - Space limited to 50 participants so register early!

When: Tuesday, July 13, 2010
1:00pm - 5:30pm

Where: Sheraton Denver
Downtown Hotel
Denver, Colorado

Cost: $40 (includes lunch)
Adults who register may invite a guest with a disability under 25 for free.

Wheelchair accessible

For more information and registration, go to:
www.miusa.org/ncde/denver
or
contact MIUSA:

E-mail: clearinghouse@miusa.org

Tel/TTY: (541) 343-1284

Disability-related accommodations such as ASL interpreters and alternative formats provided upon request

This event is offered in partnership with the co-convened AHEAD and PepNet conferences and is co-sponsored by Mobility International USA (MIUSA), the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the U.S. Department of State and the Association on Higher Education and Disability (AHEAD).