

“I believe that all people with disabilities are members of a global family, working across borders to effect change.”

~ Susan Sygall,
CEO and Co-founder

Mission Statement

To empower people with disabilities to achieve their human rights through international exchange and international development.

Donate!

Join us in creating “a world as it should be” and receive our semi-annual newsletter MIUSA’s Global Impact. Donate online www.miusa.org/donate or call (541) 343-1284 (Tel/TTY).

Web Site

Learn more about our projects, download free resources, order publications, and connect via social networking tools.

www.miusa.org

Mobility International USA

MIUSA

Creating A World As It Should BeSM

Who We Are

Working to create a world as it should beSM, our international exchange, leadership and international development programs ensure that people with disabilities take their rightful place in the world community. Mobility International USA is a U.S.-based non-profit organization founded in 1981. Our mission is to empower people with disabilities to achieve their human rights through international exchange and international development.

Emerging leaders. Disability rights. Life-changing experiences.

Pioneering short-term international disability leadership programs in the U.S. and abroad with 2,000 youth, young adults and professionals from over 100 countries. Challenge Yourself and Change the World[®]!

Accessing the World through International Exchange.

Advising and providing free tools for people with disabilities, professionals and organizations on increasing disability inclusion in international study, volunteer, teach and other exchange programs. Through the National Clearinghouse on Disability and Exchange, a project sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, we are bridging people, places and programs.

Human rights. Grassroots disability leadership. Training and technical assistance.

Turning standards on disability inclusion into policy and practice. From Ethiopia to Mali, through the islands of Palau to Jordan, Colombia, Uganda, Vietnam, and Zambia, MIUSA's trainings are framing the inclusion of people with disabilities as a human rights issue all over the world. Through training and technical assistance,

International Development and Disability projects create partnerships to ensure that people with disabilities are leaders and participants in the development process.

Loud, Proud and Passionate[®].

Bringing together grassroots women leaders with disabilities from around the world to build skills and strengthen international networks of support to improve the lives of women and girls with disabilities. Through MIUSA's signature program, Women's Institute on Leadership and Disability (WILD), women with disabilities are changing the world!

Who We Are

Working to create a world as it should beSM, our international exchange, leadership and international development programs ensure that people with disabilities take their rightful place in the world community. Mobility International USA is a U.S.-based non-profit organization founded in 1981. Our mission is to empower people with disabilities to achieve their human rights through international exchange and international development.

Emerging leaders. Disability rights. Life-changing experiences.

Pioneering short-term international disability leadership programs in the U.S. and abroad with 2,000 youth, young adults and professionals from over 100 countries. Challenge Yourself and Change the World[®]!

Accessing the World through International Exchange.

Advising and providing free tools for people with disabilities, professionals and organizations on increasing disability inclusion in international study, volunteer, teach and other exchange programs. Through the National Clearinghouse on Disability and Exchange, a project sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, we are bridging people, places and programs.

Human rights. Grassroots disability leadership. Training and technical assistance.

Turning standards on disability inclusion into policy and practice. From Ethiopia to Mali, through the islands of Palau to Jordan, Colombia, Uganda, Vietnam, and Zambia, MIUSA's trainings are framing the inclusion of people with disabilities as a human rights issue all over the world. Through training and technical assistance,

International Development and Disability projects create partnerships to ensure that people with disabilities are leaders and participants in the development process.

Loud, Proud and Passionate[®].

Bringing together grassroots women leaders with disabilities from around the world to build skills and strengthen international networks of support to improve the lives of women and girls with disabilities. Through MIUSA's signature program, Women's Institute on Leadership and Disability (WILD), women with disabilities are changing the world!